

Re Dental Consultation paper - Draft registration standard for general registration of practitioners with qualifications substantially equivalent to approved qualifications

I note a date is given for the recent initial acceptance of Canadian substantially equivalent qualifications.

Is there a similar need to provide an "on or after" date for the initial acceptance of each UK and NZ substantially equivalent qualifications?

With regards

Ted Whitehead
Consumer Representative, ACT