Application for review of conditions or undertakings

Profession: Dental

This form is for registrants applying for a review of conditions or undertakings that apply to their registration. Under section 125(1) of the National Act, a registered health practitioner may apply to the Dental Board of Australia (the Board) to:

- change or remove a condition imposed on the practitioner’s registration or endorsement, or
- change or revoke an undertaking given by the practitioner.

An application cannot be made during a review period applying to the condition or undertaking, unless the practitioner reasonably believes that there has been a material change in the practitioner’s circumstances (section 125(2)(a)). Conditions or undertakings relating to health, conduct or performance imposed by a council or tribunal in New South Wales (NSW) cannot be reviewed by the Board. Any request for review must be directed to the NSW council or tribunal.

It is important that you refer to the Board’s registration standards, codes and guidelines when completing the form. Registration standards, codes and guidelines can be found at www.dentalboard.gov.au

This application will not be considered unless it is complete and all supporting documentation has been provided. Supporting documentation must be certified in accordance with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (Ahpra) guidelines. For more information, see Certifying documents in the Information and definitions section of this form.

Privacy and confidentiality

The Board and Ahpra are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The ways the Board and Ahpra may collect, use and disclose your information are set out in the collection statement relevant to this application, available at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

By signing this form, you confirm that you have read the collection statement. Ahpra’s privacy policy explains how you may access and seek correction of your personal information held by Ahpra and the Board, how to complain to Ahpra about a breach of your privacy and how your complaint will be dealt with. This policy can be accessed at www.ahpra.gov.au/privacy.

Obligations of registered health practitioners

The National Law pt 7 div 11 sub-div 3 establishes the legislative obligations of registered health practitioners. A contravention of these obligations, as detailed at points 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 or 8 below does not constitute an offence but may constitute behaviour for which health, conduct or performance action may be taken by the Board. Registered health practitioners are also obligated to meet the requirements of their Board as established in registration standards, codes and guidelines.

Continuing professional development

1. A registered health practitioner must undertake the continuing professional development required by an approved registration standard for the health profession in which the practitioner is registered.

Professional indemnity insurance arrangements

2. A registered health practitioner must not practise the health profession in which the practitioner is registered unless appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are in force in relation to the practitioner’s practice of the profession.

3. A National Board may, at any time by written notice, require a registered health practitioner registered by the Board to give the Board evidence of the appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements that are in force in relation to the practitioner’s practice of the profession.

4. A registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a written notice given to the practitioner under point 3 above.

Notice of certain events

5. A registered health practitioner must, within 7 days after becoming aware that a relevant event has occurred in relation to the practitioner, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the event. Relevant event means—

a) the practitioner is charged, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, with an offence punishable by 12 months imprisonment or more; or
b) the practitioner is convicted of or the subject of a finding of guilt for an offence, whether in a participating jurisdiction or elsewhere, punishable by imprisonment; or
c) appropriate professional indemnity insurance arrangements are no longer in place in relation to the practitioner’s practice of the profession; or
d) the practitioner is refused registration at a hospital or another facility at which health services are provided is withdrawn or restricted because of the practitioner’s conduct, professional performance or health; or
e) the practitioner’s billing privileges are withdrawn or restricted under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth) because of the practitioner’s conduct, professional performance or health; or
f) the practitioner’s authority under a law of a State or Territory to administer, obtain, possess, prescribe, sell, supply or use a scheduled medicine or class of scheduled medicines is cancelled or restricted; or
g) a complaint is made about the practitioner to the following entities—

(i) the chief executive officer under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth);
(ii) an entity performing functions under the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth);
(iii) the Secretary within the meaning of the National Health Act 1953 (Cth);
(iv) the Secretary to the Department in which the Migration Act 1958 (Cth) is administered;
(v) another Commonwealth, State or Territory entity having functions relating to professional services provided by health practitioners or the regulation of health practitioners.

h) no complaint is made about the practitioner to the following entities—

(i) the chief executive officer under the Human Services (Medicare) Act 1973 (Cth);
(ii) an entity performing functions under the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth);
(iii) the Secretary within the meaning of the National Health Act 1953 (Cth);
(iv) the Secretary to the Department in which the Migration Act 1958 (Cth) is administered;
(v) another Commonwealth, State or Territory entity having functions relating to professional services provided by health practitioners or the regulation of health practitioners.

6. A registered health practitioner must, within 30 days of any of the following changes happening, give the National Board that registered the practitioner written notice of the change and any evidence providing proof of the change required by the Board—

a) a change in the practitioner’s principal place of practice;

b) a change in the address provided by the registered health practitioner as the address the Board should use in corresponding with the practitioner;

c) a change in the practitioner’s name.

Employer’s details

7. A National Board may, at any time by written notice given to a health practitioner registered by the Board, ask the practitioner to give the Board the following information—

a) information about whether the practitioner is employed by another entity; or

b) if the practitioner is employed by another entity—

(i) the name of the practitioner’s employer; and

(ii) the address and other contact details of the practitioner’s employer.

8. The registered health practitioner must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the notice.

Consent to nationally coordinated criminal history check

I authorise Ahpra and the Board to carry out a nationally coordinated criminal history check for the purpose of assessing this application.

I acknowledge that:

• a complete criminal history, including resolved and unresolved charges, spent convictions, and findings of guilt for which no conviction was recorded, will be released to Ahpra and the Board;

• my personal information may be extracted from this form and provided to the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) and Australian police agencies for the purpose of conducting a nationally coordinated criminal history check, including all names under which I am or have been known;

• my personal information may be used by police for general law enforcement purposes, including those purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth);

• my identity information provided with this application will be enrolled with Ahpra to allow for any subsequent criminal history checks during my period of registration;

• if and when this application for registration is granted, Ahpra may check my criminal history at any time during my period of registration as required by the Board for the purpose of assessing my suitability to hold health practitioner registration; or in response to a Notice of Certain Events; or an application for Removal of Reprimand from the National Register;

• I may dispute the result of the nationally coordinated criminal history check by contacting Ahpra in the first instance.

Consent

I consent to the Board and Ahpra making enquiries of, and exchanging information with, the authorities of any Australian state or territory, or other country, regarding my practice as a health practitioner or otherwise regarding matters relevant to this application.

I acknowledge that:

• the Board may validate documents provided in support of this application as evidence of my identity, and

• failure to complete all relevant sections of this application and to enclose all supporting documentation may result in this application not being accepted;

• notices required under the National Law and other correspondence relating to my application and registration (if granted) will be sent electronically to me via my nominated email address;

• Ahpra uses overseas cloud service providers to hold, process and maintain personal information where this is reasonably necessary to enable Ahpra to perform its functions under the National Law. These providers include Salesforce, whose operations are located in Japan and the United States of America;

Understand Ahpra may verify the accuracy of my registration details, including my date of birth and address, to entities such as prospective employers who disclose that information to Ahpra for the purpose of confirming my identity. Ahpra will only do this where the entity seeking the verification has given a legal undertaking they have obtained my consent to this verification.

I confirm that I have read the privacy and confidentiality statement for this form.

I declare that:

• I am aware of my infection status for blood-borne viruses and I will comply with the Communicable Diseases Network Australia’s Australian National Guidelines for the Management of Health Care Workers known to be infected with Blood-Borne Viruses and with the requirements of the Board’s Infection Control Guidelines in relation to blood-borne viruses;

• I may dispute the result of the nationally coordinated criminal history check at any time during my period of registration;

• I wish to allow for any subsequent criminal history checks during my period of registration;

• the above statements, and the documents provided in support of this application, are true and correct, and

• I am the person named in this application and in the documents provided.

I make this declaration in the knowledge that a false statement is grounds for the Board to refuse registration.

Information and definitions

CERTIFYING DOCUMENTS

DO NOT send original documents unless specified.

Copies of documents provided in support of an application, or other purpose required by the National Law, must be certified as true copies of the original documents. Each and every certified document must:

• be in English. If original documents are not in English, you must provide a certified copy of the original document and translation in accordance with Ahpra guidelines, which are available at www.ahpra.gov.au/registration/regaistration-process;
• be initialed on every page by the authorised officer. For a list of people authorised to certify documents, visit www.ahpra.gov.au/certify;
• be annotated on the last page as appropriate e.g. ‘I have sighted the original document and certify this to be a true copy of the original’ and signed by the authorised officer; and
• list the name, date of certification, and contact phone number, and position number (if relevant) and have the stamp or seal of the authorised officer (if relevant) applied.

Certified copies will only be accepted in hard copy by mail or in person (not by fax, email, etc). Photocopies of previously certified documents will not be accepted. For more information, Ahpra’s guidelines for certifying documents can be found online at www.ahpra.gov.au/certify.

CHANGE OF NAME

You must provide evidence of a change of name if you have ever been formally known by another name(s) or if any of the documentation you are providing in support of your application is in another name(s). Evidence must be a certified copy of one of the following documents:

• Standard marriage certificate (ceremonial certificates will not be accepted).
• Deed poll.
• Change of name certificate.

Faxed, scanned or emailed copies of certified documents will not be accepted.

INFECTION CONTROL

When applying for, and at renewal of, registration you are required to make a declaration that you are aware of your infection status for blood-borne viruses and that you will comply with the Communicable Diseases Network Australia’s Australian National Guidelines for the Management of Health Care Workers known to be infected with Blood-Borne Viruses and with the requirements of the Board’s guidelines on infection control.

For more information, view the full guideline online at www.dentalboard.gov.au/Codes-Guidelines/Policies-Codes-Guidelines.
